DEVELOPING PERSONALITY SKILLS OF UNDER PRIVILEGED WOMEN

On 21st of May, through Ankit Mehra, the Delhi chapter secretary of IMPA – Image Management Professionals Association conducted a personality development workshop “Maid in Heaven” for mothers of children with disabilities enrolled in our education system. These mothers work as domestic helpers.

The workshop was delightfully presented in an engaging manner with songs, role play and an immersive interactive session. The workshop concluded with the area MLA distributing certificates to the participants

Free Eye Camp

FOR REFRACTIVE ERRORS

This Eye Camp was organized by MESH, sponsored by the Fair Trade Forum of India and eye care services were provided by Vision Spring Foundation.

About 75 families and children attended the half-day camp. Vision Spring Foundation provided low-cost spectacles to all those found to have refractive errors.
