The Arc of Constellation

"The Arc of Constellation" is an enchanting art show by artist Ankon Mitra and the NGO Society for Child Development. The exhibition features a stunning collection of hanging artworks that depict the beauty and complexity of constellations in the night sky. It was a unique artshow and a visual treat.

The Society for Child Development has created a platform named Art for Prabhat for people with disabilities to showcase their creative skills and raise funds for Prabhat Special School for children with mental disabilities. "The Arc of Constellation" was a wonderful experience for all who were involved.
